DEPTFORD FLOWER SHOW

Hello
My name is Ru and I have run Deptford Flower Market with my partner every Saturday at Deptford Market Yard for nearly 6 months now. We're planning a special event on Saturday 26 July 2025 and would love you to take part: DEPTFORD FLOWER SHOW as part of Deptford X Fringe.

We're looking to celebrate the revolutionary power of flowers, joy and shopping small on Deptford High Street and around from us local independent legends. The show is in honour of two fabulous and inspiring Queens, Sylvester (You Make Me Feel Mighty Real), and Marsha P Johnson (Stonewall riots legend) who both loved a flower crown.

What we'd like from you:

- Make a floral artwork: this could be on paper, sculpture, window display, video, made of real/faux/dry flowers or plants. We can help discuss these and source flowers if you need them but think DIY and use your imagination they could be cardboard or paper. (again not mandatory but the more the better it will look). We would love you to give us a title and one line about it for a caption so we can label them all. You can have it on your premises to encourage people to come and look at it or have it displayed at our market.
- Dress up: Dress up in florals or fun party clothes you love (not mandatory lol)
- Offers: Put on special editions, products or deals to celebrate your artwork.
- Help us promote: Promote the event on our socials (flyers attached) and invite your customers/friends/family/chosen family/frenemies.

In return we'll give you:

- Promotion: Advert in our printed mini programme & treasure map which we will distribute the week before and on the day and an article featuring your business on our website To Do List plus their email.
- Awards: Awards for the best floral art works and for taking part.
- HUGS! (non mandatory) & our everlasting appreciation.

Action: If you'd like to take part please email us via contact@wherehaveallthetheflowersgone.co.uk before the end of this week ideally with:

- Your business name:
- Email:
- Mobile Number (only for emergencies on the day):
- One line about your business:
- One line about your idea for the Deptford Flower Show:

I will try and contact everyone I can via Instagram or other channels too but would love to have you! And please do share with anyone you think might like to take part.

Many thanks
Ru (and Stu)
